MONTJOYA SENDS ANOTHER INVITE TO EDITORS

Urges All of the Pencil Pushers of New Mexico to Get in the Picture in Albuquerque on August 17th.

If there is not a general representation of editors at the meeting of the State Editorial association here on August 17th it will not be the fault of President Nestor Montjoia. Mr. Montjoia yesterday sent out a fresh call to the pencil pushers to be here and get in the picture. His letter follows:

"Albuquerque, N. M., Aug. 2. 'Members of the New Mexico State Press Association:

"Dear Sirs: The importance of attending the meeting of the association which will be held in Albuquerque August 17, 1914, cannot be overestimated. The business to be transacted needs immediate attention for the welfare of the craft, so as to obtain a square deal which can only be brought about by united and concerted effort.

"Albuquerque, the convention city of the state, where hospitality and attention to visitors is always foremost and accommodations complete, is ready to receive you and welcome you royally. The local press will do all in its power to make your stay satisfactory and pleasant, and you can rest assured that Albuquerque never does things by half.

"One of the most important features connected with the meeting has recently developed through Mr. A. E. Koehler, Jr., commissioner of public safety for the state exposition board of the San Diego national exposition, and through Col. R. E. Twitchell, the favorite and gifted son of New Mexico, whose great work for the state is appreciated everywhere, and that is his moving picture of the meeting of the State Press association, to be used as one of the great advertisements for the state at the San Diego exposition.

"Motion pictures will be taken of all important phases of the meeting; also still pictures for slides and individual pictures of each member for framing in a great frame for exhibit at San Diego and for hanging in the capitol of New Mexico after the exposition. In addition a group picture of all members will be taken.

"This feature will require the attendance of as great a number of members as possible to the meeting, so that the public may be able, in the future, for all time to see face to face the moulders of public opinion in the state. In 1914, and who in their individual stances stand for right and progress in every line and collectively for the greatest good, development and welfare of the sunshine state of New Mexico.

"We are modest, only our enemies say not, but let us for once show the country our 'phiz' as God made it, hoping thereby that some additional good for the people and the state may come out of it.

"We hope to see every editor and publisher present on such an occasion, wearing his glad rags and a broad smile.

"NESTOR MONTJOIA, President New Mexico State Press Association."

Mr. Montjoia also has called a meeting of the Albuquerque newspaper men for August 4th to complete arrangements for entertaining the visitors.

WIFE SAYS SUNNY SHELTON IS CARELESS WITH HIS REVOLVER

Sunny Shelton, colored, is locked up in the city jail, charged with flourishing a deadly weapon in a threatening manner. The deadly weapon is a revolver, and Sunny is alleged to have flourished it at his mother-in-law and his wife Sunday evening.

The appearance of the gun is said to have followed a family row. Mrs. Sunny swore out a warrant yesterday and Officer Pablo Lujan served it. Sunny will be arraigned before Justice Craig tomorrow morning.

SAN JUAN COUNTY ON THE BOOM THIS YEAR

New Industries, Big Fruit Crop and the Spirit of Progress Combine to Give Northwest Country Prosperous Season.

(By Orval Ricketts.)

Farmington, N. M., Aug. 1.—Tons and tons of fruit are being shipped from the Farmington fruit district this year, now that the fruit season has commenced in earnest. Activity is witnessed at every turn, and if work is referred to, one may find with impunity the words, "Everybody's doing it."

The year 1914 promises to be the most prosperous San Juaners have ever had. Hundreds of acres of young orchards coming into full bearing this year and all heavily laden with fruit that is commanding excellent prices is responsible for most of this prosperity, although the Democrats are maintaining that they are the responsible party, and if they really are, then they should be mighty proud of their job.

For some reason things started out with a vim from the very first of the year. First came R. S. Baker and established a wholesale house in Farmington, which is attracting much reservation trade to the town and it putting considerable ready cash into circulation. No sooner than the wholesale house had got comfortably settled until the citizens formed the famous Uplift club, that diffused the spirit of optimism and action through the veins of the residents, and which was directly responsible for the remarkable day's work of putting in a sidewalk from Main street to the depot, and the dissemination of the good-roads virility, besides many other works of smaller consequence.

Then came from Albuquerque Louis W. Gailles and took the management of one of the department stores and greatly increased its stock, and August the first he opens up for business in a new location with more commodious and up to date quarters. And out of the ashes of a disastrous fire rose like the Phoenix of mythology a reconstruction.

Throughout the entire county of San Juan the spirit of industry is prevalent, every ranchman seemingly being imbued with the determination to wrest from the soil its fullest increase. The spirit of road building has gripped the people of the county in a firm embrace and before the fruit rush came on, miles of road was put in excellent condition, and when the rush is over this fall work will be commenced that will not stop until the road from the state line at Colorado to the Hogback at the reservation shall be in prime condition.

Only the first of the month were the much-needed and long demanded stock yards built at Farmington to enable the stock raisers to ship their cattle and sheep, which are increasing rapidly in number of late, owing to the good grazing to be had on the mesa of the surrounding country.

Down in the Liberty valley the Stallins brothers swung the biggest land deal that has been promoted here for years, and have sold the famous Wiley Mesa to colonists who are already improving the lands.

Several months ago was commenced the construction of the bridge at Shiprock by the government, but owing to high water the work has been retarded. And a couple of months ago the county commissioners let contract for a steel bridge to be built across the Laviata river at Farmington.

rock expired July the first, and it was awarded to a new party, another change of importance was made—the new mail man purchased a ton and a half motor truck, the first to be brought into the county, and the truck been pulling through the muddy roads and washouts occasioned by the heavy rains of the past month with colors flying. The success of this truck is practically the assurance that the route to Gallup will be opened up by some enterprising hunter when the bridges across the Laviata and San Juan are built this fall.

The incorporation of the irrigation company at Aztec recently is taken to indicate a revival of irrigation project development work.

With all these things behind her this year, the San Juan will receive an impetus that will thrust her far from the borders of the state, and with the representative of an important firm making headquarters here this season, the fame of her sun-kissed, flame-touched fruit will reach even out to foreign shores.

GENERAL TAX MEET IN SANTA FE ON AUGUST 20

Board of Equalization Calls Session of County Commissioners and Assessors to Talk Over Situation.

Santa Fe, N. M., Aug. 4.—Thursday, Aug. 20, has been selected by the state board of equalization in session at the capitol as the day for a meeting of the district attorneys, the members of the boards of county commissioners and all assessors of New Mexico to talk over equalization matters. In view of the calling of Republican and Democratic state conventions about that time here and in Albuquerque, it is believed that two birds could be killed with one stone and a large attendance will be obtained.

The board passed the following resolution concerning the forthcoming meeting:

"Resolved, that the secretary of the board of equalization be instructed to notify all district attorneys, the boards of county commissioners and all assessors of counties of the state that a meeting of the board will be held August 20 for the purpose of considering assessments made in various counties and equalizing the same, the reason being that some of the said officials have requested that they be consulted before any changes are made in the assessment of their counties."

The board has but 24 out of 25 tax rolls for its inspection. The Santa Fe county tax roll, it is true, looked up before the traveling auditor Saturday, but was sent promptly back to the assessor. It is said that aggregate of items on the tax roll fell over a million and a half full value or over half a million to the one-third value below the figures placed in the recapitulation column.

George M. Kinnell, one of the county commissioners of Santa Fe county, is said to have been a caller at the office of the traveling auditor and it is rumored that Mr. Kinnell is desirous of knowing what is the matter with the tax roll.

The Dona Ana county tax roll is reported on the way and was expected to arrive at the traveling auditor's office today.

MOTORMAN LEAVES CAR TO STOP A RUNAWAY

A runaway horse attached to a buggy was stopped at Second street and Central avenue late yesterday afternoon by Perfecto Armijo, Jr., a motorman, who jumped from his car to do it. The horse was running north on Second street, and when Armijo pulled it up was headed for the show window of the Butte drug store. Seraphin Garcia, a driver, helped the motorman make the stop.

The Markets

Chicago Grain.

Chicago, Aug. 4.—Wheat advanced sharply today as a result of improved prospects for a speedy renewal of exports to Europe. The opening, which ranged from 1/2c lower to 1/4c higher, was followed by a rise of 2 1/2c to 3c compared with last night. September touched as high as 90c, December 24c and May 41c.

The close was strong and 2 1/2c to 3c net higher on account of the late reports of export buying.

Hot, dry weather threatening serious crop damage lifted corn. After starting 1/2c to 3/4c higher, prices continued to ascend, and in some cases gained as much as 2 1/2c, September reaching 70 cents.

Closing prices were strong, 2 1/2c to 3c above last night.

Although oats opened lower under pressure of hedging sales, a substantial advance ensued.

Provisions pulled moderately from yesterday's depression.
